COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Re: Nominations for the Diversity Committee of the College Assembly
To: Faculty of the College of Arts and Sciences
From: John Lepri, Chair, College Assembly
Date: April 11, 2017

Nominations are now in order for the election of four members of the Diversity Committee of the College Assembly. Self-nominations are acceptable. Under the revised Instrument of Government adopted by the College Assembly in April 2017, The Diversity Committee shall be an advisory committee to the Dean on all matters related to the diversity of faculty, staff, and students within the College of Arts & Sciences. The Committee shall consist of consist of six faculty members, one staff member and one student member. Four faculty members shall be elected at large by Assembly to serve staggered two-year terms. Faculty may serve two consecutive terms. Two faculty members shall be appointed by the Executive Committee in consultation with the Dean to serve one-year terms. One staff member will be appointed by the College of Arts & Sciences Staff Council in consultation with the Dean to serve a one-year term. One student will be appointed by the Dean to serve a one-year term. Faculty and staff may serve two consecutive appointed terms. Since this is a new committee, the two individuals receiving the most votes will serve two years, and the next two individuals will each serve one year (with possible re-election; future committee members will serve terms as designated in the College Instrument of Governance).
