Nominations are now in order for the Chair-Elect of the College Assembly. Self nominations are acceptable. According to the revised Instrument of Governance adopted by the College Assembly in October 2003, the Chair-Elect of the Faculty Assembly will be elected for a three-year term, serving first as Chair-Elect, then as Chair, and then as Past Chair. The Chair-Elect shall assume the duties of the Chair in the Chair's absence. The Chair-Elect will also serve on the Executive Committee. In addition to a Chair-Elect, the Executive Committee consists of Chair and a Past Chair. The Executive Committee is responsible for conducting elections for, and making appointments to, the other committees of the Assembly. Membership on the Executive Committee is open only to tenured faculty members who have completed at least one academic year of full-time service at UNCG. The nominee must sign this nomination and it must have the supporting signature of three eligible voters.

The current Chair-Elect Talia Fernos, Mathematics & Statistics will become the Chair, while the current Chair, Selima Sultana, Geography, becomes Past Chair in Fall 2019.
