The Department of Sociology presents

UNCG Harriet Elliott Lecture Series

Women and Conflict

March 24 & 25 2010

Wednesday, March 24, 2010 – 7:00 pm
Elliott University Center Auditorium

Barbara Martinez Jitner
Filmmaker and Human Rights Activist
“Femicide at Our US Border: To Be a Woman in Juarez is a Death Sentence”

Thursday, March 25, 2010 – 9am to noon
Virginia Dare Room of the Alumni House

Dr. Linda Burton
Duke, Dept of Sociology
“Journeys to the Altar: Intimate Unions and Childbearing Among Low-Income Urban and Rural Mothers”

Dr. Kim Blakenship
Duke, Global Health Studies Program
“Inside and Out: Women, the ‘War on Drugs, and HIV”

Dr. Linda Brady
Chancellor, UNCG
“Women and Conflict Resolution: The Right Skills for These Difficult Times”

For more information:
www.uncg.edu/has/lectureseries/index.html