

The African American & African Diaspora Studies Program Presents:

BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS 2019

Monday, February 4

BLACK HISTORY MONTH KICKOFF ★

Curry 349 Suite | 12pm

We invite you to join AADS and OIE for our Black History Month kick-off event. Play Black History Month jeopardy, network with students and AADS faculty, and register to attend CACE 2019. Pizza and drinks will be provided.

MODERN BLACK LIVES & THE MEDIEVAL RIGHT ★★★★★

MHRA 1215| 5:30pm

Dr. Cord Whitaker will lead a talk that considers the role of the Middle Ages in the development of modern racial ideology.

CACE 2019

Monday/Tuesday, February 11 & 12

GET READY FOR CACE WORKSHOPS ★★

EUC Azalea | Monday at 11am
EUC Birch | Tuesday at 3pm

This is an interactive workshop to prepare students to present at academic conferences. Facilitated by Erin Harrison and moderated by Dr. Cerise Glenn Manigault.

Tuesday, February 26

LITERARY CAFE

EUC Alexander | 6pm

Come listen to spoken word performances about creating paths to a resilient, creative, and limitless future. This event will feature a tribute to Lorenzo "Logie" Meachum. Facilitated by D. Noble.

Wednesday, February 27

RESEARCH PRESENTATIONS, LUNCH, WORKSHOPS, AND BLACK PANTHER (2018) FILM SCREENING

EUC Multiple Rooms | Events begin at 10am

Attend our day-long conference events on Afrofuturism: Resiliency and Creativity. CACE will feature presentations from students and faculty from UNCG and other universities. Other highlights include a dialogue on African and African American relations, interactive workshops, a student organizations networking table event, and a film screening of Black Panther (2018). Register at: <https://goo.gl/acrBZ4>

Tuesday, February 12

CONVERSATION WITH THE COMMUNITY: AFRICANS IN THE GRECO-ROMAN WORLD ★★★

EUC Claxton | 6pm

Drs. Omar Ali and Becky Muich will lead a conversation on Africans in the Greco-Roman world. Reception to follow.

Tuesday, February 19

RACE, RACISM, AND SOCIETY ★★★★★

SOEB 114| 11am

Join professor and critical race scholar, Dr. Eduardo Bonilla-Silva as he leads a talk on race, racism, and society. Dr. Bonilla-Silva is the author of Racism without Racists.

Thursday, February 28

STORIES WITHOUT WORDS EXHIBITION

The Artery Galley| 10am - 6pm

Explore pathways from the spiritual to the metaphysical through the art of Dr. Frank Woods and Vandorn Hinnant. This exhibit opens on Feb. 28 and runs through March 30, 2019. Address: 1711 Spring Garden St, Greensboro, NC 27403.

* In collaboration with the UNCG Office of Intercultural Engagement

In collaboration with the UNCG Speaking Center

In collaboration with the Lloyd International Honors College & Classical Studies

*In collaboration with the Sociology Department Colloquium Speaker Series

In collaboration with the Department of English and the English Department class of 1952 Professorship

Additional Information can be found on our website: <https://aads.uncg.edu/>